4.1. St Edmunds Parochial Church Council

The church was closed throughout the Covid pandemic, but it was cleaned and checked regularly. The roof has been repaired and the guttering was cleared and cleaned. A new smart meter has been installed.

While the church was closed it was decorated to acknowledge Christmas and Easter Festivals.
A resident took part in a sponsored church bike ride to raise funds.
The Church has had a new gate fitted.
The Church quota was paid but not in full.

Olive is retiring after many years of her faithful service and Olive was thanked for all her dedication and commitment.

4.2. Horningtoft Community Fund and Covid Support Group
The full report can be seen on the website

4.3. Horningtoft Heritage Society
The full report can be seen on the website

The Heritage Society had completed a stunning display that could be viewed before the meeting. The display included items of Military records, personal memories of local residents, family trees, agricultural records, property sale particulars and Brisley and Whissonsett school photos.

Meeting closed at 1921.
